

Willow Warrior Weekend

Sponsored by the Spokane Conservation District
Dates: April 29th & 30th, 2016

Proposed Agenda (Friday the 29th):

- 8:30 am: Meet at the Conservation District offices (210 N. Havana), organize the troops
- 9:00 am: Depart for the put-in site, located in Latah, Wa.
- 10:00 am: Arrive at the put-in site, gear up, safety discussion, and planting instructions.
- 10:30 am: Depart from put-in via canoes, plant willows along the way, enjoy the ride...
- Noon-ish: Break for lunch
- 3:00 pm: Arrive at the take-out site, near Waverly, Wa. and transport drivers to put-in
- 3:30 pm: Depart for Conservation District offices
- 4:30 pm: Arrive back at Conservation District offices

Proposed Agenda (Saturday the 30th):

- 8:30 am: Meet at the Conservation District offices (210 N. Havana), organize the troops
- 9:00 am: Depart for the put-in site, located off Valley Chapel Rd.
- 10:00 am: Arrive at the put-in site, gear up, safety discussion, and planting instructions.
- 10:30 am: Depart from put-in via canoes, plant willows along the way, enjoy the ride...
- Noon-ish: Break for lunch
- 3:00 pm: Arrive at the take-out site, near Hangman Valley Golf Course, transport drivers to put-in
- 3:30 pm: Depart for Conservation District offices
- 4:30 pm: Arrive back at Conservation District offices

Personal Gear Requirements:

- Water compliant clothing & shoes (recommend waders if weather is colder)
- Zip Lock bags for keys, wallets etc.
- Pruning shears
- Sun block
- Sack lunch, beverages

 The SCD will provide transportation and a shuttle transport back to the put-ins (each day) for a limit of six drivers. Volunteers are encouraged to utilize the transportation provided due to limited parking space at put-in/take-outs.

